About the property: PT1257

Exclusive new-build development for sale, located in the iconic Belém neighborhood, one of Lisbon's most historic and prestigious areas. It combines the charm of architectural heritage with the comfort and elegance of contemporary design. Designed by the renowned architect Luís Rebelo de Andrade, the development consists of two three-story buildings with lifts, housing 14 homes of various types: studios and one-, two-, and three-bedroom apartments, some with private gardens or balconies. The homes stand out for their high-end finishes, fully equipped kitchens, built-in wardrobes, designer bathrooms, and an underground parking space with electric access doors. Situated just a few steps from Lisbon's main monuments, this development offers a sophisticated and peaceful lifestyle, with excellent transport links, as well as proximity to local amenities and the city centre. It's a unique opportunity to experience modern living in a historic setting where tradition and contemporary architecture blend seamlessly. The images are renderings and the information corresponds to the developer's project.
