About the property: 071700

Surrounded by lush palm trees, this remarkable villa project is located in the prestigious old part of Son Vida. Set on a completely flat and private plot of approx. 2,137 m² at the end of a side street, it combines modern architecture with a serene natural environment. The villa offers approximately 500 m² of living space across two levels, designed with openness and light in mind. Floor-to-ceiling glass elements, elegant sliding panels, and ceiling heights of up to four meters create a seamless indoor-outdoor experience. The main level features a spacious living and dining area with an open-plan kitchen, along with three refined bedroom suites. Additional suites can be added if desired. Expansive terraces appear to float above the garden, overlooking the pool, waterfall, and tropical greenery. A valid building license is already in place, allowing for immediate construction with an estimated completion time of around 12 months. Buyers can personalize interior finishes to their taste. A rare opportunity for those seeking design, exclusivity, and harmony with nature.
