In the heart of Pilar de la Horadada, this detached villa is a gem that combines modern design with functionality. Just 48.7 km from the airport, this property ensures a quick and easy connection for those who value proximity to essential services without sacrificing the serenity of a residential environment. Discover a balanced lifestyle between comfort and accessibility with Alicante Spain Properties. Enjoy outdoor luxury in your own private garden, perfect for moments of tranquility or entertainment. The terrace and solarium are ideal for soaking up the Mediterranean sun, while the private pool becomes your personal retreat during the hot summer days. These spaces have been designed with maximizing both enjoyment and privacy in mind. Inside the villa, the porcelain stoneware floors stand out for their elegance and durability. The layout includes two bedrooms and two bathrooms, offering comfort and practicality to its residents. Electric blinds along with the video intercom add additional security and comfort. The modern kitchen is equipped with current appliances, while the built-in wardrobes provide practical storage solutions.
