In the attractive area of Cancelada, Alicante Spain Properties presents a distinguished residential development consisting of 12 exclusive homes. This project includes apartments, ground floors, and penthouses designed for those who desire a home with contemporary style and comfort. Located just 1 km from the sea, this enclave offers the opportunity to enjoy the fresh sea air and a privileged location that ensures immediate access to local services. Ideal for both year-round living and occasional getaways. The homes feature private terraces that invite you to enjoy the excellent Mediterranean climate and outdoor moments with family or friends. Just 1 km from the sea, residents can delight in walks by the water and various nautical activities. The exterior architecture harmoniously blends with the natural surroundings, creating a serene environment where relaxation is inevitable. Each residence is equipped with elegant porcelain stoneware floors that offer exceptional durability. The apartments, ground floors, and penthouses are available in different configurations of bedrooms and bathrooms to meet varied family needs. The layouts include terraces that expand the interior space to the outside, allowing you to enjoy the surrounding landscape. Additionally, they come with modern appliances, intercom for added security, and efficient built-in wardrobes.
