

Townhouses in Cartagena with Sea Views

Cartagena, Murcia

 265.000 €

Discover the perfect opportunity to live in Cartagena with these two semi-detached houses that Alicante Spain Properties offers you. Just 500 meters from the coast, you can enjoy the privilege of sea views and fresh air. Its location is ideal for those who value connectivity, being 49 kilometers from the airport, which facilitates your national and international travels. This option is excellent for families or couples looking for a coastal home with the perfect balance between privacy and community. Designed with the maximum enjoyment of the Mediterranean climate in mind, the exteriors of these semi-detached houses are ideal for outdoor living. Each property features a private garden where you can create your own personal retreat or a play area for children. The terrace provides additional space to relax, dine under the stars, or simply admire the sea views. Additionally, the solarium is perfect for sunbathing in complete privacy. Thinking of modern comfort, the interiors are equipped with three bedrooms and two bathrooms, perfect for adapting to any contemporary family. The built-in wardrobes ensure that there is always enough storage and organization space within the home. With elegant and easy-to-clean ceramic floors, these homes are practical for everyday life. The pre-installation of air conditioning guarantees comfort throughout the year, while having your own garage adds security and convenience.
